how to do the new nude mouth

Readers test the wear-everywhere shade.

1. "I hate when hair gets stuck to my lips, but this is smooth without being too slippery."
—Suki Mulberg, 28, Rimmel London Moisture Renew Lip Gloss in Pink Protect ($6.50, at drugstores)

2. "So shiny, I slipped my usual gloss on me."
—Samantha Smith, 25, Lancôme L'Absolu Rouge Lipcolor in Rich Cashmere ($28, lancome.com)

PRO TIP: You need Wash or bronzer with these to keep skin from looking washed out.

3. "The perfect first date lipstick—not so bold that he's scared to pucker up!"
—Julianne Carrell, 21, Chanel Rouge Coco Lip Colour in Peregrina ($30, chanel.com)

4. "It feels as good as it looks. Gave me great coverage, and it's hydrating."
—Vanessa Knowlton, 34, Clinique Rouge Hydra Blush Lipstick in Nude Rose ($24, clinique.com)

PRO TIP: To fake fuller lips, use silver or gold shadow above the middle of your lips, says Funafushi.

Kissing Dos & Don'ts

We're sure you're great at it already, but these skilled pucker-uppers have bonus tips!

DO give him a hands-on tutorial.
"Instead of embarrassing a bad kisser, whisper a sexy suggestion in his ear or kiss his neck so he can learn from what you're doing," says Ali Fedotowsky, the latest heartbreaker from The Bachelor. Hopefully he'll follow your lead!

DON'T always close your eyes.

"It's an automatic reflex to shut them," says Andréa Demirjian, author of Kissing, "but looking at each other can be more intense."

DO give him something minty.

"I always have Listerine Strips in my bag," says Rebecca Bugdy, star of All My Children, who kisses costars nonstop on the job. "If a guy has bad breath, I'll have one and offer it to him, too—it's less awkward."

what was that lipstick, anyway?

Not to take anything away from their kissing skills, but we like to think it was the lipstick that sealed the deal! Our best guess for what kind of color these famous lovebirds were wearing:

1 "You should be kissed, and often..." said Rhett Butler in Gone With the Wind. Scarlett's lips look orangey red, like L'Oréal Paris Colour Rich Lipcolor in Volcanic ($9, at drugstores).

2 How many frogs must a girl kiss? In The Princess and the Frog, Tiana's hue makes practicing pirty. Try Maybelline New York Color Sensational Lipcolor in Summer Sunset ($7.50, at drugstores).

3 Remember this? Britney and Madonna, back at the 2005 MTV VMAs. We spotted a pinky gloss on Brit. Try Elizabeth Arden High Shine Lip Glass in Shimmering Pink ($15, elizabetharden.com).

4 Gustav Klimt's famous painting The Kiss decorates college dorm rooms everywhere. Her lovely shade is a hue like Clinique's Different Lipstick in Ripe Raisin ($15, clinique.com).

5 Nothing like celebrating with a victory kiss! Michelle wore a pinky nude to one of the 2009 inaugural balls. We like Bobbi Brown Lip Color in Heather Mauve ($22, bobbibrown.com).
